March 15: First look inside Alan Rowe Kelly's BLOOD SHED

Independent writer/director Alan Rowe (I'LL BURY YOU TOMORROW) Kelly gave Fango some early photos from THE BLOOD SHED, the segment of the horror anthology HUNG BY A THREAD (see item here) that he's currently in the midst of shooting. SHED details the perverse and violent activities of a family of deranged hillbilly types; pictured above are Kelly himself and Joshua Nelson, also the writer/producer/star of the upcoming indie shocker AUNT ROSE. Pictured below are Mike (THE TENEMENT) Lane and Mingle Mangle's Susie Adriansen; the cast also includes FLESH FOR THE BEAST writer/director Terry West and TOMORROW's Zoë Daelman Chlanda, Jerry Murdock and Sandra Schaller. You can see a bunch more pics from the SHED shoot by photographer Craig Schiavone at his website. Look for more on SHED (on which Fango scribe Jeremiah Kipp is serving as associate producer) and the other THREAD segments (to be directed by Tyler Tharpe and Michael Todd Schneider) in the near future, and Nelson's Notes from the Underground piece on ROSE in Fango #252, on sale this month. —
